"I strive to make the legal process as seamless as possible, empowering clients with the knowledge and strategies they need to move forward with confidence."

Megan Halbur provides guidance to clients in business and corporate law, real estate, mergers and acquisitions, estate planning, and probate. She is committed to delivering personalized legal solutions tailored to each client's unique needs. By taking the time to understand their needs, she develops a tailored approach to help clients reach a legal resolution that exceeds their objectives. Whether negotiating agreements or offering strategic counsel, her creative problem-solving ability helps clients overcome legal obstacles effectively. Her willingness to listen, strong communication skills, and compassionate nature make her a trusted advisor for both businesses and individuals.

Background & Education

Before attending law school, Megan worked as a workers' compensation adjuster for three years, managing claims involving benefits, medical payments, and litigation. This experience provided her with valuable insight into the intricacies of risk management and dispute resolution—an asset to clients navigating business, real estate, and probate legal matters.

Megan earned her Juris Doctor from Creighton University School of Law
